Cool, let's do it! Shall I meet you at yours tomorrow at around 17:15?
That's the earliest I can leave work.

Yeah that's alright. Do you have some gardening gloves by any chance? I got some tools but no gloves.

I don't, but I honestly don't mind picking some up at the store on my way there, I actually would love a pair for myself at home!

That's really awesome of you, thank you. And thanks again for the help, I owe you big time.

Don't mention it, that's what friends are for :D See you tomorrow!

See ya!
